Amazing Love Healing Ministry News

Advent: Behold I Do a New Thing...Do You Not Perceive it!

Dear Friends of the Amazing Love Healing Ministry:

Healing is perceiving that Jesus Christ has come completely into your life past, present, and forever. Healing is encountering the living Christ in unhealed events and experiencing a "new thing." Healing is experiencing the incarnational presence of Christ in every aspect of our lives!

We watch God as He touches the orphan child in Roatan with hope who wants to be a star athlete. We listen as a woman cries who has been abused as a child, suddenly experience the cleansing healing touch of Jesus and now come the tears of joyous freedom. We see the Bolivian woman walk who has been bound for 4 years to a wheel chair because a stroke paralyzed half of her body.

Couples who are estranged become reunited. A man who thought he was of no value was lifted up by Christ Himself. A woman who believed she was all alone all her life suddenly was healed by His truth that He has never left her. A worn out pastor who is ready to give up receives new Life and hope in Him to continue on. All healed to walk in freedom and now proclaim the glory and love of God to others. Behold He is doing a new thing!

Won't you help us keep doing what God has given us to do: Bring His healing love to the whole world! We are not sending out letters and envelopes in order to use His resources wisely in our ministry, but instead we appeal to you through this email letter and newsletter. Many wounded people including leaders and pastors write to us, asking us to come. They are hurting and their churches are hurting. We must bring Jesus the Healer. He makes all things and all people new. Healing through Christ is transforming. Please help to send us in His Name. Send all end of the year donations to:

Freedom Cruise

What an awesome time I had aboard ship. I had all the luxuries and food you could imagine. Then I stepped off the ship in Roatan Island, Honduras. We were greeted at the port by joyful singers and dancers looking for us to drop some money into their box. That is one way they have to make a living.

We walked past the shops and out through the gated fence that protected us. We walked down the main street for about three blocks. The streets were muddy and coarse. There were armed guards, with rifles drawn, at the door of the bank. As we walked a young boy decided to join us, so he could get some money. We walked and talked with him for a little while, then one member of our group gave him $5.00 and sent him on his way to meet some more people from the cruise ship (the ones with money). On the days the cruise ships arrive, the children are released from school early, so they can be "tour guides".

We stopped at a shop called "Made in Roatan", that is run by missionaries. Pastor Sharon had told us about the shop. The local people make their crafts and the money goes back to them when their items are sold. Needless to say, I started spending money. Among other things I bought a book titled, "The Darker Side of Paradise". It is the story of Carolina Brooks, born and raised in Roatan. Carolina is a woman of great faith amidst a life of suffering.

In retrospect, when I look at my life in contrast to what I saw, I am rich by comparison.

Thank God from whom all blessings flow.

Jesus Be Manifest in Me

2 Corinthians 4:8-10 We are hard pressed on every side, but not crushed; perplexed, but not in despair; persecuted, but not abandoned; struck down, but not destroyed. We always carry around in our body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be revealed (manifest) in our body. NIV

Pastor Sharon opened our week-long journey with a wonderful homily, "Jesus Be Manifest in Me" from the scripture above. Surrounded by thousands of souls on this large cruise ship in God's mighty sea, it was humbling to feel God's presence among us. We witnessed this manifestation as we visited with missionaries in Roatan, prayed with congregants at a small service in their church as well as their new proposed church site, and then followed members of our group who donated items to an orphanage. As a group we shared singing, laughter, several meals, praying and healing. At sea the final day, one could not help but visualize Jesus in the boat on the Sea of Galilee as we held our closing Eucharist. Healing occurred for many of us as saw Christ's love revealed to us. Thanks be to God.
